MIDDLESEX TEAM WIN WEST KENT CUP. There was a considerable attendance a Causeway Bayon Saturdayafternoon, when teams representing the Middlesex Regiment and the Hongkong Civilians met in the final for the West Kent Cup.

. The teams were :-Middlesex Regiment. Capt. Curingham, Lieut. Large, Lieut, Dixon and Lieut.

Civilians.—Hon. Mr W. J. Gresson, Mr C. H. Ross, Dr J. W. Noble and Mr W. S. Dupree. This order was maintained during the first chukka, but in the second Dr Noble exchanged places with Mr Ross. . Capt. Finch and Commander Majendie were the Umpires.

The game was very interesting although a triffe enesided and some excellent sport was seen. Two chukkas were played but the Civilians were no where compared with the heroes of the recent Interport polo match. Lientenant's Large and Dixon played a splendid game the former scoring ave of the six goals. In the second chukka play was much more exciting, the Civilians showing better form. Four goals were scored in the first chukka and two in the second and at the conclusion of the game the score stood :- Middlesex Regiment 6 goals, Civilians nul. In a few complimentary words His Excollency, Sir Frederick Lugard presented the West Kent Cup to Lieut Large, who accepted it on behalf of the team.

His Excellency then called for three cheers for the winning team and these being heartily given a tiger was also given led by Dr Noble.

The Parsees Cricket Festival.

Mr. S. D. Setna courteously informs us that he received a telegram from Bombay on the evening of the 19th inst. at 9 p.m. stating that the Cricket Match played at Bombay between the Parsees and the Presidency resulted in the victory of the Presidency team by 176 runs. This is the first of the triangular mutches. On the 21st, 22nd and 23rd inst. the Winners (the Presidency) have to play against the Hindoos.

There have been persistent rumours of late that two prominent Mohammedans, and a number of Chinese gentlemen, are forming a syndicate to take over one of the principal hotels in the Colony, with the object of forming it into a limited liability company in the near future.

NAVAL AND MILITARY,

Commodore Herbert G. King Hall, who has had the proud distinction of command ing His Majesty's ship "Indomitable" o her record-breaking trip, is the younges son of Admiral Sir William King, Hall, an officer who was very well known in his day. He died twenty-two years ago, and of his sons, one has recently relinquished the command of the Irish naval station on his promotion to Vice-Admiral, and the other has just brought home the Prince of Wales from Canada, after a voyage that will figure prominently in the history of British naval trinmphs. Commodore King-Hall has seen 35 years' service in the Floet. He took part in the Egyptain War of 1882," when he won special promotion, and in the Gambia Expedition for the punishment of the Sofas, twelve years later, while he won high praise during the South African Wor for his work as transport officer. H married Lady Mabel Murray, sister of the Earl of Mansfield. In Indian military circles the recent promotion of Lieutenant-General Sir Edmund Barrow, to be a Lieutenant-General on the Staff in India, in succession to General Sir A. Gaselce, is one which has been received with cordial approval Codes:-Al, ABC 5th Ed., Western Union. | General Barrow, who for nearly thirtyyears has been playing an active part in war service and in the duties of Staff appointments, has acted as Assistant Secretary in the Military Department of the Government of India, and also as Secretary. He was Chief Staff Officer of the China Expedition of eight years ago.

Periodically the rumour is revived that the position of Commander-in-Chief is to be restored to the British Army, and in every case the rumour couples the name of the Duke of Connaught with the first appointment to the restored chiefship. Needless to say that the rumour is the merest gossip, coined by those who would dearly love to see the old rule of autocracy once more predominant at the War Office. There is much to be said in favour of "Onlooker's" plea in the Morning Post for a return to the handsome uniforms worn by officers until a few years ago, when the changes in dress made to "reduce the expense" did away with the gold lace and other embellishment that had previously been so profusely worn. It is rightly urged that gold-laced stripes and gold trimmings will last much longer than cloth stripes; and the change, while it stripped him of all the richness of his way the fleets are re-modelled, as it is be-

THE NATIONALITY OF CHRIST

It remained for an American delegate to provide the principal theme of contention

ut the International Historical Congress, which has just concluded its session here.

Prof. Paul Haupt, of Baltimore, created theologians by his address on "The History of Galilee," this title only veiling his real subject, which was based on the question:

"Was Jesus a Jew?" Prof. Haupt answered this negatively, stating that Christ was not born in Bethlehem, according to the early Christian tradition, -but in Margroth. He contended that the assessment which necessitated Joseph's journey to Bethlehem occurred eleven years after Christ's birth. After a succession of arguments, Prof. Haupt put forward his conclusion that it was improbable that Christ was a descendant of David. It was probable, on the other hand, that he was a descendant of the Aryan Colonists of Galilee. Possibly if His genealogical tree could be traced far enough it would be shown that he was a descendant of Zoroas-

HOW TO DO MORE BUSINESS.

MANY AMERICANS have built up great commercial enterprises, by the use of Trade-news items supplied by our CLIPPING BUREAU; Chinese merchants can do the same if they follow American methods. We clip business news from more than 50,000 papers monthly, and send these items to you while there is good prospect of supplying what is needed and doing We can send you news and clippings on any line of business, or any subject, and you will be able to know, IN TRUTH, just what American business methods are like, and where there are openings for Chinese merchandise Suppose, for instance, you are a maker of Pottery: our Clipping Bureau might find in some paper an item saying that a big wholesale Pottery concern was being organized in a certain fown :- we. of course, would send you that business-news item, and give you a chance to do business with that firm. We can do just the same in any line of business, for there is always comething being on that it might pay Chinese merchants to know. We can supply you with advertisements of, all the great American merchants and manufacturers, so that you may assimilate their ideas and increase your business in China the way we do here.

To avoid delay, send ten_dollars (Mex.) for one month's trial order. Subsequent rate can be determined according to service. It won't cost any money to send for our fine Book which tells all about our service and how much it costs. Send for it to-

FALSE DECLARATION ALLEG-ED TO HAVE BEEN MADE.

Before Mr Justice Compertz, at the September Criminal Sessions, at the Supreme Court, to-day, Lau Kin was charged with having made a false declaration at the Supreme Court on May 16, with death he obtained a Crown lease of the site tion or probate was granted in respect of poor, and no steps were taken to secure administration. The widow of deceased left Hongkong for a time, the house being taken shortly afterwards a summons was issued launched in a month, and they will be the of a man named Lai Leung, to eject the occupier of the house. Prosecutrix instituted inquiries and found that this man had obtained a grant of administration from the Supreme Court to the estate of deceased, alleging that he was the next of kin, and that he had registered the grant of property in his name at the Land Office. It was necessary that there should be an affidavit of identity!filed before administration was granted, and the defendant, it appeared, identified this man and corroborated his petition by making a-declaration before the Commissioner for Oaths to the effect that he was Lai Leung, and that he was the younger brother of deceased. Prosecutrix alleged that the petitioner was no relation whatever to her deceased husband, who never had a brother.

The following verdict was given recently by a Coroner's Jury in Washing-

We find that the said Richard West came to his death from crushed wounds in the chest and asphyxiation. Said injuries were caused by being caught in a falling building being constructed at Twentieth and P. Street, N.W., and owned by one Thomas H. Pickford, the cause of the fall of which we determine to have been faulty construction of the corner pier, which was not of sufficient strength as computed and passed by the Building Inspector's

NEW SHIPS FOR THE EAST.

EDINEURCH, August 21.

The "Morea," the latest and most im portant addition to the fleet of th Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Co., had been launched by Messrs Barday. Curle, & Co., at their Olydeholm Shipyard, Whiteinch, near Glasgow. This fine vessel,-one of three recently ordered,-represents the latest type of fast mail and passenger steamer for the P. & O. service to India and Australia. Designed for speed, her fine lines and graceful outline suggest a large yacht rather than a vessel of commerce. Her length is 560 feet; breadth, 61 feet 6 inches; depth, 39 feet and gross tonnage, 11,500. Quadruple expansion twin-screw engines will drive the vessel at a speed of eighteen knots per hour. She will carry 407 firstclass passengers and 200 second class. The mail rooms are situated on the lower deck

The President of the French Republic has conferred the decoration of an Officer of the Order of Cambodia upon a Scottish traveller, Mr John Thomson, for his exploration work in Cambodia in 1866. Thomson, who is perhaps better known for his later work in China, was the first explorer to photograph the ambodian antiquities, to prepare ground plans, copy the Pali inscriptions found in the buildings, and to give an account of these wonderful relies of a bygone civilisation. Mr A. R. Whyte, of Pegu House, motto of the Greigs of Eccles, "Strike Sure, " is inscribed within the wreath. A new Scottish play by Mr J. M. Barrie is to be produced in September, the first dramatic work from his pen since ... Alice-Sit-by the Fire "appeared three years ago. It is a four-act comedy entitled What Every One Knows." Mr Barrie, unlike of cost. some of our dramatists, does not believe in giving away his story in advance, but from what is known, it is satisfactory to find that he is going back to the field where he has been long supreme. The first two acts take place in Scotland, and three of the principal characters are the proprietors of a Scottish granite quarry. Mr Jame Cowan of Ross Hall, Paisley in English Politics.

How He Won His Position

Says Mr T. P. O'Connor in M. A. P. _I am constantly asking myself, after the more than twenty years I have been watching Mr Balfour, the question whether or not he cares about political life at al It is undoubted that he can find plenty of countersignature, and to take immediate things outside politics to interest and fill. up his life. He thinks a great deal about those metaphysical questions which have always had an irresistible attraction for Scotchmen; he is fond of writing; he is an omniverous reader. I have sometimes been startled to find how familiar he with books that one would not expect a busy politician to have even heard about. He has none of the fervency of conviction; none of the auroral hopes; nor none, above all, of the rancours, general or personal, which make politics to the usual type of politician the greatest of all human games-except, perhaps, the game of war. Now and then you hear from him in public and in private certain words which imply a sense of weariness and the obstinate self-question. which is so familiar to so many politicians, Is the game worth the candle? I assume that it is true of him what I have often thought was true of most politiciansespecially when they get to anything like a leading position—that they become lik bricks in the control a wall; that is to landed at their risk into the hazardous say, that they become surrounded with so many conditions, pledges, private and public fortunes, that they cease t have any independent will, and must just stop where they are unable to stir either to the right or the left; and, above all unable to stir to the rear and find a hasty and welcome retreat. Being thus compelled to remain in the game, Balfour plays well; he could not do it otherwise. He has to talk incessantly, and a man, by incessant practice in talking, enormously improves his powers of speech; and he has the splendid gift of such equability of spirits that he is never either elated or depressed unduly. His mind and his temperament are a little like his body. Tall, very thin apparently almost fragile, this body of his has carried him through labours and conflicts which have worn out and ruined apparently robust men; to-day, for instance, while he is still apparently quite vigorous and even young for his years, that once iron frame of Mr Chamberlain is broken. Nobody except a member of the House of Commons can realise what being landed at their risk into the an amount of desolating fag Mr Balfour passed through during all those long years LOON WHARF AND GODOWN COMPANY, LTD., he was Leader of the House of Commons; at Kowloon, whence and/or from the the long hours, the want of proper food, proper exercise, the continual worry of No Claims will be admitted after the meeting difficulties, healing divisions,

Goods have left the Godowns, and all piloting Bills through all the eddies, Goods remaining undelivered after the 22nd currents, and storms of the House of Commons. And there he is, after all, young man. And so it is with his temperament and his mind; he can stick it out ments and firmer wills are broken on the

This is the secret of the final victory he has won in even the present House of Commons; and why he is listened to now with respect, and even sometimes with admiration, by an assembly of men who but three years ago could hardly control Partridge, -Che Kauc itself sufficiently to listen to him without hooting or hissing. It's dogged as does it, and Mr Balfour is very dogged.
